JULIE MILLER: RECENT WORK AT STEVEN ZEVITAS GALLERY

Boston, MA - STEVEN ZEVITAS GALLERY is pleased to announce an exhibition of recent drawings and video by Boston-based artist, Julie Miller. Recent Work will be on view from Thursday, January 22 through Saturday, February 28, 2009.

Over the past several years, Miller has created a body of work that falls under the category of obsessive drawing. While earlier work largely focused on essentially uniform fields of color, Miller has recently begun a new exploration of color relationships and internal structure; indeed, the four newest pieces in Recent Work, clearly demonstrate a new area of exploration for the artist.

Miller characterizes her primary interest in image making as stemming from a "fascination with visceral experiences that come across directly onto the nervous system." To this end, Miller provides viewers with an abundance of visual stimuli so that they can undergo this experience with her. Embedded in her meticulous work is the time that each piece takes to create (the show's centerpiece is a 50" x 50" drawing that took Miller no less than 5500 hundred hours to complete).

Miller earned her MFA from the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in 2006. Recent exhibitions of her work include solo exhibitions at bf annex in Boston, and group exhibitions at the DeCordova Museum in Lincoln, and at Boston's Museum of Fine Arts. Miller was the recipient of a Massachusetts Cultural Foundation Artist's Fellowship in 2008. This is her first one-woman exhibition at STEVEN ZEVITAS GALLERY.

Recent Work will open Thursday, January 22 and continue through February 28. The artist will be present at an opening reception on Friday, February 6th from 5:30-7:30 PM. For additional information, please contact Steven Zevitas at 617.778.5265 (ext. 22).
